1- Introduction of Tunisia

Tunisia is located in North Africa, only 2 hours flight from main European capitals, with more than 3000 years civilization: Roman cities, Berber dwellings, Andalousian villages...

Tunisians always represented a connection between the east and the west, Europe and Africa.

Its population is a mix of different origins: Berbers, Arabs and Europeans.

Tunisia is prime territory for a straight forward sun-sand-and-sea holiday.

But beyond the beaches, it's a thrilling, underrated destination where distinct cultures and incredible extremes of landscape – forested coastlines, Saharan sand dunes in the south – can be explored in just a few days.

General Informations

- Languages : Arabic. French is widely spoken, everywhere. Italian is often spoken in coastal towns and English spoken in tourist areas. Most signs are bilingual
- Religion: Islam (98% of the pop.), Judaism, Christianity
- Population: 11.7 million inhabitants (Source : INS 2020)
- Surface area: 163,155km²
- Location : Tunisia is only a 2 hours flight from main European capitals and 3 hours flight from Istanbul
- Time zone: GMT + 1
- Currency: Tunisian Dinar (TND). The Tunisian Dinar is divided into 1000 millimes
USD 10 = around TND 30 (July 2023)
